Description:

D'Artagnan is a lovely macho black male. He has excellent conformation, a true-to-type head shape and a highly fine fleece, which is retaining as he matures.

D'Artagnan is a compact male, with strong and stocky bone structure. He descends from excellent bloodlines, including the highly successful Rizado. He is a very gentle, friendly alpaca who is a joy to work with.

D'Artagnan's fleece is fine, bright, uniform and very dense. His fleece has a soft handle and he is retaining his fineness as he matures. He has excellent coverage extending right down his legs. The tips of his fleece tend to bleach out with the sun through the year, but at his skin he is jet black.

D'Artagnan, just like his namesake, is a dashing macho and works his charms easily on the ladies!

D'Artagnan's first cria were born in 2016. He has thrown some stunning progeny that can be viewed on farm.
