Description:

Rosaria is a very striking alpaca to look at, she is tall with a very pretty face. She has a timid personality, that with lots of attention she will develop into a very confident alpaca. Similar to some of our other quieter females she enjoys the peacefulness of her field, grazing amongst her friends.

In 2019 Rosaria' 10th fleece came back with a micron count on 34.20. Although slightly higher than the average, this is great for her age. With wise breeding her attributes that she passes on could lead to some really nice cria.

For 2019 we have mated Rosaria to Cambridge Storm Cell (EPCBASUK472) - (S)TB (UKBAS19274) and is due mid July.

Storm Cell's current awards below show what fine genetics the cria will inherit.
