Description:

Inca Linden is a lovely looking young male who has an inquisitive and gentle temperament. Conformationally this boy is very correct and his fleece is highly advanced with great fineness, density and staple length.

Inca Linden would make a great family pet with a minimum of two other males or he would be equally as good as a sheep or chicken guard.

Inca Linden has been castrated and is fully up to date with his vaccinations, toe nail trimming and deworming. He is available for immediate inspection and delivery can be arranged.
