Description:

As a part of the transition to small, quality breeder, we are selling castrated males from our original pet herd. Up for sale we have a group of 4 males available:

Sherlock - 5 year old dark brown

Poplock - 1 year old black

Huxtable - 1 year old white

Houdini - 1 year old mid brown

They are each £500 or could be bought as a package for £1500.

This is Sherlock. He is a large, inquisitive, and handsome fellow. He wants to be the alpha male, so he is best suited with more submissive castrated males in his herd. Although he is castrated, he is a bit girl crazy, so it would be best if he was only around other male alpacas. He is not halter trained.

Being that these boys were former pets, it has been a purely business based decision to sell them. We will be sad to see them go, so a great home is a must!

At Capital Alpaca we strive to keep happy, healthy animals and we are committed to providing excellent aftercare to our clients. We are available to help with any husbandry questions or issues that arise.
