Description:

Willowbrook Cyclone is a friendly and sweet natured, solid white, juvenile huacaya male. He is currently being halter trained ready for his new owners, and is used to children. Sired by the prize-winning stud 'Valley Alpacas Invictus', he has some fantastic genetics on both sides of his pedigree.

His fleece is very fine and bright, solid white in colour, and has a lovely soft handle. It has above average length and density, with a well-defined staple.

We are careful not to over handle our youngsters, but like them to be friendly and easy to manage. Cyclone would make a wonderful companion animal, for someone with an interest in spinning or knitting as he has a high quality fleece, or as an unusual grass trimmer!

We are selling Cyclone with his friends Excalibur (dark chestnut brown) and Flapjack (dark brown with two white front feet), as alpacas are herd animals and cannot be kept on their own.
