Description:

Ruby is an quality young female who was on our list to go to the Nationals in 2020 but unfortunately never got to be shown due to covid and then this year going to stud.

She is a very proud young female with plenty of presence ,a good solid frame and true to type head style.

Rubys fleece as a 2 year old was 20.33 microns with a comfort factor of 97.22 %

Ruby has bred us a stunning young male last year and is a brilliant mother .Birthed and latched the cria on totally unaided .She will be an ideal starter female who is an experienced mother with a super quality fleece and frame to breed show quality or fibre producing cria .

Price is negotiable to the right home and reflects the current market and my current personal circumstances and not the quality of ruby as she is an excellent alpaca and is pregnant to our super Black stud male Bride Valley Machiato

Name of covering male: Bride valley Machiato (Bay Black)
Last Mating Date: 8th August 2023
Estimated Date Cria Due (Pregnant Female): 8th July 2024
Number of Crias bred from female: 1
