Description:

Chestnut Farm Fleckie is a lovely young male. He is solid white in colour and produces a lovely soft, dense, lustrous fleece. He has a strong frame and correct confirmation. Fleckie is halter trained and walks happily on the halter, he is easy to handle and stands quietly to have his toenails trimmed. He is up to date with vaccinations and husbandry and will come with a print out of his medical history. Fleckie will only be sold to someone who already has alpacas of a similar age.
