Description:

Illusion is a white Suri who is easy to handle , halter trained and has been part of our trekking team. He has also been lightly shown where he was awarded reserve champion and first place in both fleece and halter.

When trekking he is what we would call a middle runner and likes to be in the middle of the group. He prefers to walk with adults rather than children as he is still quiet young. He will happily walk over obstacles , through water over bridges etc. We have not used him as a stud male as we only have a few Suri alpacas and have other studs to use.

His fleece is very lustrous and has a lovely handle with above average density. It falls into layers and is showing good organisation across the fleece His fleece from this year can be seen at the farm. His sire multi Supreme champion Popham Suri Carlos who won the Supreme Champion Suri at the British Alpaca Nationals in 2016.

His dam is Popham Suri Radiance who has also won Supreme Champion at the Yorkshire Fleece show in 2021
