Description:

Quintus is a solid jet black male yearling who walks very well on a halter and has been on longer walks as well as, in a pen, to numerous country shows.

He hops in and out of the trailer confidently, jumps over small obstacles and enjoys being hand-fed his pellet mix (but has not developed a love for fruit and veg yet)!

Quintus has inherited his dam's petite conformation along with his sire's generous fleece covering and had a lovely first fleece with lots of crimping bundling, a very soft handle and fantastic brightness. His fleece is uniform in its deep blue black colour and style throughout, with his neck fibre still long enough to spin.

He will only be sold to a preexisting male herd or into a newly-formed herd of at least 3 males (including him). Please contact me for any questions about him as well as to see videos of him / meet him in person.
