Description:

The Toastmaster is very much the teddy bear of his group. Carrying an abundance of soft fleece. He is very well handled having been shown and used on our training courses. He enjoys being around people.

Ideal trekker or lovely pet.

As with all our 2021 castrated males, these boys were kept as potential stud males but it was decided that they had just missed the extremely high standard required to be a Beck Brow stud male. This does mean he, as with the others, has a lovely soft fleece which should retain its quality with age keeping an attractive look to him and a saleable fleece.

Fully up top date with all healthcare needs.

Training and ongoing support included.
