Description:

Beck Brow Takes the Wicket takes the very best genetics from our coloured breeding lines. His dam Beck Brow Kiss Me Quick (dam Beck Brow Snooty Boots) is a BAS National Colour Champion and has herself gone on to produce a National Champion (now working stud at Beck Brow).

Sired by Timbertop CT Goldmine and with Waradene St Patrick in the mix she is a star performer.

TTW's sire is Beck Brow Hit For Six who packs in not only Gilt Edge Samurai of BBW but is from our other most successful female line; Bozedown Campari. Campari is the dam of numerous high-performing stud males including Beck Brow On The Money.

These two females really demonstrate the reliability of using genetics with a depth of proven quality alongside top-performing sires.

TTW is a well-balanced male who is correct in his conformation in every way. He has a very attractive head type and good presence.

His fleece is very soft handling, bright, dense and with a good level of fineness. His is showing minimal strong primary fibres in to the brisket and belly area and is very consistent in style (thus quality) across his fleece. It was these qualities which caught the eye of the judge at Westmorland show, where he was awarded Judge's Choice as well as Champion Brown Male (only time shown)

Add to the above a very gentle nature making him a joy to handle (no problem standing for sash photos on a windy day!)

Dam and siblings are available for inspection. Hit For Six now owned Captial Alpaca.

Takes the Wicket comes with a guarantee of fertility and veterinary certificate as well as Enferplex pre-movement testing.

Full health records provided.

Genetic colour Ee aa
