Description:

Let's Go Crazy is a great-looking pet boy. He is modern grey in colour making him a standout in the paddock.

He carries a very exciting fleece for processing or crafting and would be a hand-spinner.'s dream to work with. He is good natured and would make a great pet or trekker.

He is halter trained and very well handled.

Ideally, we would like him to move with two or more of his paddock mates. He could however make up a threesome with other males of the same age.

Microchipped and BAS listed

Fully up to date with all husbandry

Full health history provided.

Training and on-going support included if required.
