Description:

We have quite a few cria on the way for 2023 at Hilly Ridge and therefore some difficult decisions need to be made to release some of our girls for sale.

Jolie was a female I was intending to keep as she is a perfect match for our Brown stud male Beck Brown Wild Card.

We are therefore offering her for sale with a discounted mating to Wildcard if the new owner would like to take advantage of this intended match ! .

Jolie is sired by our Champion Grey male Essex Stirling who really injects longevity of fineness into his offspring together with an increase in staple length and style. Wildcard we feel will add that next layer to increase the density and to continue to improve the other traits to really provide a quality cria in 2024.

Jolie has a balanced frame with a straight topline. Her frame is stylish with a attractive dainty head style however the mating with Wildcard would also provide a little more substance of bone which she would benefit from moving forward. Her fleece is very soft handling and a rich brown colour, its well nourished and offers a good uniformity of micron and considering she has a grey sire a good uniformity of colour.

Jolie is halter trained and very easy to handle. I would think she may be of interest to those wanting to breed colour with the chance of a grey.

We are offering her for sale at a very reasonable price and if the buyer would like her mated then we are able to offer that at a discounted price.

We also offer TB testing and all alpacas are sold with a full husbandry history , registration with BAS and full back up service.
