Description:

Wuthing Heights Talisman is a very striking looking young male who has been carefully bred for both looks and quality fibre. Conformationally this upcoming sire is almost ideal; he has correct leg angulation, great proportion, true to type head and he carries himself with stylish presence and attitude.

He is growing a fleece that is extremely fine, dense, bright and long stapled and we feel it will only improve as he matures and grows his second fleece.

With two 'on trend' and high valued sires in his pedigree; Toft Timogen and Softfoot koo Wee Rup, and the genetic power to breed a range of colour, this male is great value for those wishing to get in early for the 2024 breeding season. This young sire comes with a full veterinary examination and fertility guarantee and is perfectly halter trained and is easy to handle.

Wuthering Heights Talisman is a stunning looking young male who is under management here at Inca Alpaca and being sold on consignment.
