Description:

Petronella is a strong, well conformed female who is a fantastic mum to her offspring. Despite her disappointing fleece stats (as she is now 13 years old), the cria she produces are a definite improvement on herself who grow dense and heavy fleeces.

Petronella would be ideal as a breeding female for someone just starting out in the alpaca industry and/or someone who likes breeding but are maybe not looking for the best of the best.

Number of Crias bred from female: 6
