For Sale: Hensting Lavender - Stunning Tuxedo Grey Alpaca with Excellent Breeding Pedigree

Introducing Hensting Lavender, a truly remarkable alpaca with extraordinary qualities that make her an exciting addition to any breeding program or fleece production operation. Donning a magnificent texedo grey fleece, Hensting Lavender stands out as a truly exceptional gem in the alpaca industry, as this color is still relatively rare.

One of the key reasons why Hensting Lavender is highly sought after is her potential to produce a grey offspring when bred with a black male. This genetic combination holds immense promise, making her an invaluable asset to breeders seeking to enhance the quality and diversity of their herds.

Let's take a closer look at Hensting Lavender's impeccable lineage. Her sire, UKBAS41522 - Hucklesbrook Spartacus, is widely regarded as an outstanding stud. With an impressive show record and remarkable fleece characteristics, Spartacus has proven time and again his ability to produce exceptional progeny. With such a prestigious father, it is no wonder that Hensting Lavender showcases superb qualities from head to toe.

Hensting Sweet Rohnas, Lavender's dam, comes from a line of multi-show winners, including the renowned Inca grey flight. This winning heritage lends an air of distinction to Hensting Lavender, ensuring that she carries the legacy of excellence forward.

In addition to her exceptional genetic makeup, Hensting Lavender boasts remarkable confirmation that sets her apart from the rest. She possesses a beautifully balanced frame, with a strong, sturdy build and perfect proportions. Her regal presence and graceful stance make her a true showstopper in any crowd.

Furthermore, Hensting Lavender has been expertly halter trained and showcases a gentle and affectionate disposition. She is a pleasure to handle and will easily adapt to any farm or herd environment.

Overall, Hensting Lavender is a rare and exceptional alpaca, combining the elusive tuxedo grey fleece with a highly desirable breeding potential. Whether you are a breeder searching for the next generation of greys or a fibre enthusiast looking for an alpaca that stands out among the crowd, Hensting Lavender is the perfect choice. Don't miss out on the opportunity to welcome this extraordinary alpaca into your life and breeding program. Contact us today to bring the beauty and potential of Hensting Lavender to your farm.
