Description:

Patou Saxon is a striking looking young bay black male with great potential.

He has a true to type head, a conformationally correct and well balanced frame and a very stylish, fine and dense fleece which is very uniform in micron.

Saxon has some great Australian genetics with Toft Timogen as his sire and Lilyfield Jack of Spades on his mother's side.

Saxon has started working this summer here at Patou, so he is ready to go.
