Description:

Grand has a dark fawn spot on her side. Although she is not so pretty she has a robust frame, produces a mass of fleece and has produced a nice friendly cria that we will be retaining to breed on in the short term. Grand is mated to Lillyfield Runaway who should bring out more colour as well as improve fleece style and more length and density in her next cria.

Name of covering male: Lillyfield Runaway (Dark Fawn)

Last Mating Date: 14th November 2023

Estimated Date Cria Due (Pregnant Female): 14th October 2024

Number of Crias bred from female: 2
