Nitetstar has been previously used as a stud but has now been castrated and is ready for his retirement.

He is a nervous boy but once he gets to know you is incredibly sweet. He loves any kind of fruit so that is definitely the way to win him over! His bite isn't great but this doesn't effect his ability to eat in any way.

Nitetstar will need to be rehomed with long time pasture mate Snowhill Maserati. Please see package for details.
