Beschreibung:

TOFT CUMULUS is a compact well grown young solid white male from our Light fawn Stud Male TOFT TORNADO who is a very fine Light fawn stud male who maintaining an exceptional level of fineness and density in his fleece as he gets older.

Toft Tornado is full brother to our Dark Brown Champion Male TOFT Timogen. They are sons of the remarkable Lavender Park Tulley and have produced exceptional offspring, which have excelled in the showring.

As you can see from the statistics above TOFT Cumulus has inherited alongside his fathers tendency towards longevity of fineness a very high level of consistency in his fleece showing an impressive uniformity of micron both in the staple and out to his extremities:- We are confident that this young man will pass on these exceptionally positive traits.
