Description:

We are reluctantly selling our beautiful grey stud male Neville after making the decision to stop breeding and reduce our herd size.

Neville is a striking male on a compact frame, with a lovely handle to his fleece and long staple length and good density. Neville has some lovely genetics, with appaloosa in his bloodlines from his maternal side, so he could bring some interesting colours to a herd! Neville has sired three cria for us; a black, a white and a rose-grey.

Neville is halter trained and a calm member of our herd. He loves the ladies and is ready to work immediately! We are only considering 5* homes for this gorgeous boy and would need him to live with a herd of males with a similar laid back temperaments.

Neville is up to date with all of his vaccinations and husbandry and is microchipped and registered with the British Alpaca Society. He had his teeth rasped in June and October 2024.
