

Description:

Maita'i is a well grown young female that will be ready to breed this year.

She has a lovely fine and dense white fleece with a handful of brown spots dotted across her body.

bred to the right male we feel this female has a very high chance of creating leopard appaloosa offspring. We plan to breed her to our leopard appaloosa stud Chinchero Macchiato and she can be sold with or without that mating.

