Description:

Meet Callie, a wonderful black female who is expecting a cria in the summer of 2025, having been mated with one of our exceptional studs.

Callie is one of our most reliable and best mothers, consistently birthing without issue and demonstrating exceptional care for her cria. All of her children have shown great promise, inheriting her excellent genetics.

While not formally halter trained by us, Callie has no issues being handled for basic husbandry tasks.

Number of Crias bred from female: 5
