Description:

Domino's dam is the five-times-champion daughter of Velvet Hall Storm Surge (at the age of two). His sire, Snowmass Mystic Star, is arguably the most prepotent Snowmass import over the past two decades. It is therefore no surprise that Domino has what it takes to become an impactful herd-sire for a breeder with ambitions to add additional quality to their grey breeding programme. His conformation is faultless, with a sturdy frame and a true-to-type head shape. His fleece is super fine, showing a high frequency crimp style from skin to tip. The incredibly low SD across his fleece is consistent with a luxurious handle and fleece style. Although Domino is only one, he's already showing a keen interest in the females in his yearling cohort; a new owner should benefit from his genetics in 2026!
