Description:

Inca India is a very reliable and cracking looking female who we have retained for many years due to her quality.
She has a balanace frame with great substance of bone and fibre coverage. She is correct in conformation and has remained healthy her whole life and retains excellent body condition when lactating.
Her fleece isn't the finest now but it is very dense and her crias have been heavily influenced by the sire's fineness which has resulted in supurb quality progeny.
Her female cria at foot is stunning and when grown out she will be highly valuable.
