Description:

Meon Valley Enchantment has proven to be a reliable mother and breeder, and rather exceptional in producing grey cria, and mostly female!! What's more, she will tell you very clearly when she is pregnant, when she is going to birth, and when she wants to be re-bred!! We are very fond of her, but are willing to release her now, so that another breeder can benefit from her, as we will probably retain two of her grey daughters.

Successful herself at shows, her cria have gone on to win Championships.

A Nyetimber daughter, we have re-bred her to Meon Valley The Sorcerer - a combination of multi-Champions, that always works well, for a cria in 2026.
