Description:

Applegarth Cookie - Bay Black Pregnant female with female cria at foot - £3,000 + vat

Three year old, Cookie, is a friendly, gentle female with an exceptional fine fleece, strong conformation and has been a fabulous mum to her female cria Cleo. Cleo, is a pretty girl with a fine mid brown fleece, she is the sired by legendary Australian import Kurrawa Legenda Bandido (standing at Applegarth Alpacas), who produces championship offspring year after year, so exciting to see how Cleo develops. Cookie is covered by Applegarth Diesel, a true black with exceptional genetics, son of Surtierra Shadow (who needs no introduction) has been a dominant influence on the black alpacas in the UK. Diesel (standing at Applegarth Alpacas) worked for the first time last year and his cria will both been in the show ring next year!

Fleece stats available on request. Covering male and progeny can also be viewed.
