Beschreibung:

Redens Wanda – Black Pregnant female - £1,200 + vat

Wanda has been a cornerstone of our black breeding programme, with two of her sons now standing as working stud males. Releasing her has been a very difficult decision, but with a limited genetic pool here, I no longer have suitable males to pair her with and she still has a few more years of breeding ahead of her.

- Proven producer of true black progeny, many with show success
- Gentle temperament and very easy to handle
- Passes her calm nature and correct conformation to her cria
- Well-balanced frame with good substance of bone
- Fine, uniform fleece with excellent structure
- superb genetics in her pedigree including multi-champions: sire is Inca Flagship, and grand sire is Lillyfield Jack of spades of Inca (imp), her dam's sire is Popham Thunder.
- All progeny are true black, show successes, and working studs
- Currently spitting off to Kurrawa Legends Bandido, a true-to-type fawn import renowned for throwing dark colours, (currently standing at Applegarth Alpacas) – an exciting combination to enhance black fleece quality

Sire: Inca Flagship

Dam: Redens Tequila

DOB: 7 July 2015

Redens Wanda can be viewed on farm, also available for viewing are her progeny and covering male.
