Lilly is a lovely natured girl and has given us some gorgeous cria. She is friendly and is great to handle. Her only fault would be she loves to lie down when getting her feet trimmed!

She has never had any trouble giving birth and is a fabulous mum. She gets pregnant easy and holds weight really well when nursing.

No reason for selling apart from retaining two of her daughters.

Lilly has proven to breed both grey and appaloosa cria and all of her cria have been a different colour!

She can be mated again to any of our studs for no extra fee.
