Description:

Nyetimber is without question the most outstanding grey alpaca to be found anywhere in Europe. He has now won over 20 grey championships beating off all comers of all ages. With his fantastic conformation allied to a fleece worthy of any white stud male this Jaquinto son offers the complete package for either the specialist breeder of grey Alpacas or indeed colours.

He has produced a significant number of grey progeny in his first 2 years, but whatever the colour the quality and consistency of fleece being seen is nothing short of remarkable.
