Description:

HEY NOW...LOOK AT ME! An upstanding herd sire with exceptional looks and a lineage packed full of outstanding genetics!
His sire is multi-supreme champion Beck Brow Explorer, who was himself sired by the famous Cambridge Navigator of ACC, a stand-out, multi-award winning son of the infamous EP Cambridge Peruvian Spartacus and Cambridge Camilla, a daughter of the globally renowned Accoyo Remarque.
The prestige isn't however, confined to his sire's side with Hey Now's dam; Cambridge Summer Solstice being a daughter of the legendary Windsong Valley Firedragon, a combination that offers a truly unique powerhouse of genetics on the island of Ireland.
Hey Now's fleece characteristics are all that one could hope for from his famous ancestors. It displays his sire's legendary brightness, is fine, has incredible density, is uniform in colour and micron and exhibits exceptional length of staple.

He has a well-defined high frequency crimp style, which is carried down the length of his staples and is consistent throughout his blanket, extending right into the extremities.

Hey Now's heavy cutting fleece is carried on a correctly conformed, macho frame which exhibits good capacity and enviable substance of bone.

To top it all off, Hey Now is an absolute gentleman. He is genuinely one of the most placid and kind-natured alpacas that we've ever had the privilege to own.

Hey Now's progeny have now hit the ground and we are absolutely delighted with the results!
