Description:

We are offering this stunning looking BAS registered proven male for his stud services. He is the blackest of blacks and boasts an impressive pedigree with strong Inca lines on both sides, his dam being Black Angel of Inca. His impressive looking solid black male father was sired by the renowned multi Champion Lillyfield Jack of Spades of Inca (Imp) who is one of the most prolific black Studs of his generation.

Incognito has a lovely head type, straight legs, a level top line and a lovely, soft dense fleece. He is consistently producing lovely offspring that can be viewed here on our farm including blacks and greys. This boy never fails us in producing gorgeous looking cria!

The photo I have/will upload of the grey is Flintstone, one of his last years cria with several females due to give birth this year.
