Description:

Churchfield Challenger - Beige Stud Male

Churchfield Challenger is a very well grown male. Conformationally Challenger is correct in his proportion, movement, and balance. He stands on a perfect frame, good bone, and chest capacity with a true to type head and excellent fleece coverage. Challenger's fleece is exceptionally dense, fine with highly aligned fibres and a great staple length. The brightness and handle to his fleece is exquisite. What is also impressive about this male is the uniformity of micron between the primary and secondary fibres.

His pedigree is packed full of top Genetics including – Cambridge Navigator, Cedar House Snow King and Bozedown Ascendant
